

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alabama. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alabama requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Alaska	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alaska. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alaska requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
American Samoa	N/A	Territory License American Samoa does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCaBA national credential is not required to practice in the territory. Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Arizona	N/A	State License Arizona does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arkansas	N/A	State License Arkansas does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
California	N/A	State License California does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Colorado	N/A	State License Colorado does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Connecticut	N/A	State License Connecticut does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Delaware	N/A	State License Delaware does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
District of Columbia	N/A	State License District of Columbia does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Florida	N/A	State License Florida does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Georgia	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Georgia. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Georgia requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students and/or graduates will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. The BCaBA national credential must be obtained before applying for the state license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Guam	N/A	Territory License Guam does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCaBA national credential is not required to practice in the territory. Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Hawaii	N/A	State License Hawaii does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Idaho	N/A	State License Idaho does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Illinois	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Illinois requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students and/or graduates will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Indiana	N/A	State License Indiana does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Iowa	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Iowa. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Iowa requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kansas	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kansas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kansas requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Kentucky	Temporary Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (TLaBA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kentucky requires a state license, state-specific trainings, and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Kentucky applicants will need to complete five hours of training in adult abuse and neglect prevention; child abuse, neglect, and dependency prevention; or a combination. These additional trainings must be complete outside of Capella. Kentucky has a list of approved pre-licensing courses for this to be completed. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential and complete the state-specific trainings before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Louisiana	State Certified Assistant Behavior Analysis	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Louisiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Louisiana requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Maine	N/A	State License Maine does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Maryland	N/A	State License Maryland does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Massachusetts	Assistant Applied Behavior Analyst	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Massachusetts requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Michigan	Assistant Behavior Analyst	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Michigan requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Minnesota	N/A	State License Minnesota does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Mississippi	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Mississippi requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Missouri	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Missouri requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Montana	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Montana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Montana requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Nebraska	N/A	State License Nebraska does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nevada. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nevada requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New Hampshire	N/A	State License New Hampshire does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Certification as a BCaBA may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Jersey	N/A	State License New Jersey does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
New Mexico	N/A	State License New Mexico does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New York	Certified Behavior Analyst Assistant	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New York. New York requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) as well as state-specific training from an approved provider, to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the national credential. Capella graduates will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience before applying for the national credential. New York regulates how experience hours can be fulfilled, including how the required hours can be earned in New York. Contact the state licensing board to review the state requirements for earning experience hours prior to engaging in site-based learning within the state of New York. New York applicants will need to submit evidence of completed coursework or training in the Identification and Reporting of Child Abuse and Maltreatment from an approved provider. Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program from residents of New York who intend to seek professional licensure or certification in New York.
North Carolina	N/A	State License North Carolina does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
North Dakota	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Dakota requires a state license and certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants must obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Northern Mariana Islands	N/A	Territory License Northern Mariana Islands do not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCaBA national credential is not required to practice in the territory. Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Ohio	N/A	State License Ohio does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Oklahoma	Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Oklahoma requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Oregon	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oregon. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Oregon requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Pennsylvania	N/A	State License Pennsylvania does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Puerto Rico	N/A	Territory License Puerto Rico does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCaBA national credential is not required to practice in the territory. Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Rhode Island	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Rhode Island. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Rhode Island requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
South Carolina	N/A	State License South Carolina does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
South Dakota	N/A	State License South Dakota does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Tennessee	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Tennessee requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Texas	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Texas requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
US Virgin Islands	N/A	Territory License The US Virgin Islands do not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCaBA national credential is not required to practice in the territory. Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Utah	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Utah requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Vermont	Licensed Assistant Applied Behavior Analysis	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Vermont. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Vermont requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Virginia	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Virginia. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Virginia requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Washington	Licensed Assistant Behavior Analyst (LABA)	Capella University's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Washington. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Washington requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA), awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Applicants will need to obtain the BCaBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
West Virginia	N/A	State License West Virginia does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.

BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the BS in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	State/Territory Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Wisconsin	N/A	State License Wisconsin does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Wyoming	N/A	State License Wyoming does not currently offer a behavior analyst license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella's BS in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCaBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 1300 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience hours outside of Capella before applying for the BCaBA national credential. Hours can be accrued in or out of the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and the BCaBA credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.